Re: Ruthbey Perez v. Frontier Airlines (14-CV-5211 (BMC) (LB))

Dear Hon. Magistrate Judge Bloom:

We represent Defendant Frontier Airlines in the above-captioned matter. Frontier Airlines hereby respectfully requests a 21-day extension of time, to and including October 30, 2014, within which to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiff Ruthbey Perez's complaint.

Frontier Airlines was served with Ms. Perez's summons and complaint via mail on September 15, 2014. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(1)(A)(i) and 6(d), Frontier Airlines' answer or other complaint is currently due on or before October 9, 2014. Undersigned counsel was just recently retained in this matter and is currently working to collect information needed to answer or otherwise respond to Ms. Perez's complaint. In addition, a second counsel for Frontier Airlines, Mr. Brian Mumaugh, is also currently in the process of preparing his pro hac vice admission motion in order to represent Frontier Airlines in this matter. For these reasons, Frontier Airlines respectfully requests a 21-day extension of time, to and including October 30, 2014, within which to answer or otherwise respond to Ms. Perez's complaint.

Frontier Airlines has requested no previous extensions of time within which to answer or otherwise respond to Ms. Perez's complaint. Undersigned counsel conferred via telephone with Ms. Perez on October 1, 2014, and was advised that Ms. Perez does not object to the relief requested herein. As reflected below, undersigned counsel is hereby sending a copy of this letter to Ms. Perez, a non-ECF participant, via U.S. mail, postage prepaid.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Very truly yours,
